

Agency authorizes self-producer of energy in São Paulo

01/21/2014

The company Biosev Bioenergia S/A has been authorized to act as a self-producer * agent of electricity from the deployment and operation of the Continental thermal power plant (UTE), located in the municipality of Colômbia, in Sao Paulo. The thermal with eight megawatts (MW) of installed capacity, will use of sugarcane bagasse as fuel.

The authorization occurred at the first board meeting of ANEEL in 2014, held today (01/21). Currently, Brazil has 268 self-producers of energy. Information is available in the Bank of Information Generation (BIG) of the Agency, which may be found at www.aneel.gov.br, at the Informações Técnicas (Technical information) session.